

Award-winning International artist/tutor Georgia Mansur grew up in California, moved to Australia in 1984, and now lives on her family's vineyard in Mudgee, NSW, Australia. She is experienced in all media and has a particular passion for painting en plein air. As a teacher, her positive approach and friendly manner ensures every student feels comfortable, whether they are a raw beginner or seasoned professional artist.

Georgia will demonstrate exciting 'seductive surfaces' and mixed media techniques, guiding students with their own subject matter and vision to create truly unique and personal works of art. Many students say after working with Georgia they have reconnected to their 'playful creative child' that has been dormant for many years. For some it is a life changing experience that impacts into other areas of their life and regular work, shaking loose some long held beliefs about themselves and their artistic abilities.

She says: "I love to see my students producing the beautiful work that comes from a good understanding of the foundations and concepts necessary for painting success. Learning to see 'as an artist sees', interpreting and simplifying the complexity of subjects, through use of colour, texture and design whilst incorporating intuitive right brain skills increases their painting skills exponentially. More importantly, students are having good, messy FUN~ something we don't make the time to do nearly enough!

'Along Coolah Road'

'Into the Shadows'

'Reflecting Pond'

This workshop will offer you the opportunity to explore mixed media in a sensory way by 'dipping a toe into your personal river' of rich life experiences, memories and imagery to express yourself through creative experimentation. Using a wide range of prepared surfaces and materials combining acrylics, gels, pastes, digital grounds, fabric, fibre and other items to create hands-on (and like LIFE, sometimes messy) expressive pieces of art ~ depicting simple but powerful messages drawn from the endless range of human emotions.

The most powerful art touches people on an emotional level and this workshop will give you the tools to access that power to express it through your work. Even if you are not a mixed media artist, this 'right brain', liberating experience will create a new pathway for self-expression that will transfer into your other work. Themes might include (but are not limited to) water, flora & fauna or the human form ~ your imagination and personal life experience will play a big part in your subject matter.

This workshop will help you connect to your creative voice with passion, make a statement, and communicate it through your art. Be prepared to push yourself out of your comfort zone, loosen up and get messy! You will have some exciting pieces of original art to take home and new tools to help you continue on your artistic journey. Open to allcomers 16years and over~ no experience necessary, Beginners welcome!
