Georgia grew up in California, moving to outback Australia in 1984. An isolated new environment gave her the chance to look inward for a source of self-expression. Now living on their vineyard in Mudgee, she has continued to explore watercolour, pastels, oils, acrylics & mixed media to find the best way to express her fascination with nature. Completing a BA of Communication Studies at CSU Sacramento, Georgia feels painting is another level to communicate that goes beyond words. Making a connection with the viewer and truly touching & inspiring others is her ultimate goal.

Artist in Residence at Hamilton Island Great Barrier Reef (4 yrs), Cable Beach Club Resort Broome, WA, she also teaches workshops around Australia & Overseas in Europe and the USA., studied with many painting masters in Australia, California & Italy. Finalist in Country Energy $35,000 Landscape Prize & winner of many awards, National and Internationally.
